ITALIAN MURDERER

Man Wanted in New Orleans Believed to be Hiding in Chicago.

New Orleans, La., June 26.—Angelo Incarnatera, arch conspirator in the "black hand" gang and the actual murderer of little Walter Lamana, was last seen Wednesday at Meridian, Miss., where five persons today identified his photograph.

Incarnatera spent Wednesday night at Meridian, leaving Thursday morning for Cincinnati, O. He met Tony Caruso, a banana dealer at Meridian, and the two spent several hours at Caruso's house. Caruso was arrested yesterday.

It is believed Incarnatera is now in Chicago, where it develops that the "black hand" had representatives. Letters found today bear out this theory. Peter Lamana, father of the kidnaped and murdered boy, called on Mayor Behrman today and requested a permit to visit the parish prison. The mayor refused to grant the permit.

It developed today that Ignazio Campisciano, who is charged with the murder of Walter Lamana, was waiting for Peter Lamana near Levy's saloon in Jefferson parish the day he went to turn over the money. There were two other men in the party. They were to give the order to drop the money, which was not given because Judge Palmer and two detectives were just ahead of Mr. Lamana while Deputy Sheriff Marrero of Jefferson and one or two deputies were following.

WILL CALL SPECIAL ELECTION QUITE SOON

Columbus, O., June 26.—Gov. Harris has announced that he would call a special election for the purpose of filling the four vacancies at the house of representatives. The vacancies are from Ashtabula, Lawrence, Clermont and Licking counties.

As the house now stands there are fifty-nine Republicans, fifty-six Democrats and two Independents. In Licking county a successor to W. A. Ashbrook, now a congressman, is to be chosen.

The Republicans are hopeful of electing a Republican successor to him, Ashbrook being a Democrat, and will wage a vigorous fight in that county. A. S. Aldorf, a Democrat, and E. S. Rand, Republican, will probably be the opposing candidates.

ST. LOUIS BREWERS EFFECT CONSOLIDATION

St. Louis, Mo., June 26.—The principal contract of consolidation of nine St. Louis, East St. Louis and Granite City breweries was signed in the office of former Attorney General E. C. Crow yesterday afternoon and delivered to the promoter of the merger, James S. Brailly, of Toledo.

A new corporation to be known as the Independent Breweries Co., to hold the stock and securities of the nine participating breweries, will be formed as soon as practical. Its capital stock will be in the neighborhood of $8,000,000.

More than 99 per cent. of the stock of the company will be owned by the present owners of the breweries. What outside money is needed will be furnished by the Cleveland Trust Co. and by Alheimer & Rawlings and Bauer Bros., brokers of St. Louis.

THE HOUSEHOLD OF FAITH IN CHRIST, 128 East Mill, St., Marion, Ohio.

Come and we will do these good. The Rev. Wm. N. Drake desires all that need help, either for soul or body, to call on him at his upper room. His business is to do good to all who wish help, to help people out of their trouble. He is getting many requests sent in as he keeps low at Jesse's feet. He is given to prayer. Many requests sent in, asking where to find things that have been lost. He talks to the Lord about it, and a great many times he can tell you just where to find it. If it is for the glory of God, and your good, you will be sure to get it. Business men are coming to get help. Send in your letters. Yours in Christian love, REV. WM. N. DRAKE, 128 E. OHIO'S PAROLE LAWS MAY BE MODIFIED

Columbus, O., June 26.—As one result of the pardoning of Harry J. Reynolds, the Cleveland bigamist, from the penitentiary despite numerous protests, Gov. Harris has been looking up the law on the question of paroles. He has declared himself against secret sessions on the part of the board of managers and sees no reasons why petitions for paroles should not be made public.

The governor does not advise, however, the making public protests against paroles because this might deter persons from making protests. As a result, of the abuse of the pardon law in the Reynolds and other cases, it is not unlikely the governor will urge changes in the law at the next session of the legislature.

ONLY SOUTHERNERS WILL BE EMPLOYED

Nashville, Tenn., June 26.—A tacit conclusion was reached by the Nashville board of education that only negroes born, bred and educated in the South, need apply for election as teachers in the colored public schools of this city. This action was taken, the board says for the reason that negroes from north of Mason and Dixon's line have "nations" and are "not familiar with Southern traditions and sentiment."

Manual training is to be introduced into the negro schools and among the applications for the position of supervisor of manual training were graduates of Harvard and other Eastern universities. One other applicant, a Southern-born, Southern-bred and Southern educated negro, was given the position.

THIS TURN. Giovanni Alessandro Giuseppe Pietro Tellegrini had been coming to school all winter clad in raincoat which raised perpetual wonder in his teacher's mind, both as to how G. A. G. P. Tellegrini managed to keep his circulation working and how the various sections of his clothes succeeded in retaining discreet proximity to each other. But now the warm weather had come, and on the first really hot day, for Giovanni appeared in a whole, heavy winter suit, with the coat buttoned up to his chin. After sundry covert glances in his direction, each of which had caused her to mop her perspiring forehead, she asked: "Giovanni, why don't you take off your coat? It makes me warm to look at you." Giovanni looked at her appealingly for a moment and then burst forth: "Oh, teacher, don't make me take it off. My brother has been wearing it all winter, and it's my turn now!"

Sufficient Reason. Queer excuses are not infrequently offered to account for the lateness of the trains on a certain railroad running into this city, but the limit was reached the other day.

The train was a local from Yonkers, stopping at every station on the line, and at nearly as many points where no station was to be seen. Finally, after having lost 33 minutes en route, the train rolled with much deliberation into New York—the station that is. As the passengers filed out in conditions of mind varying from those of hopeless despair and resignation to those of impatience and even, we regret to say, of profanity, a mild-looking little man ventured to ask the conductor what had caused the delay. The conductor spat judiciously and vouchsafed an explanation that to his mind was apparently eminently conclusive and satisfactory.

"We were running behind an express train," he said.—New York Times.

Guessing at It. "I'd like to know," said Dunley, "what this quotation means: 'Sit transit gloria mundi.'"

"Search me!" replied Wigwag. "Those first two words, though, sound as if they might have some thing to do with an ambulance."

GREATEST YEAR EVER

So the Arizona Kicker Announces For Suckers.

BARGAIN SALES GALORE.

How the Czar of Giveadam Gulch Was Hit a Solar Plexus Blow on a Million Dollars' Worth of Stock in a Fake Concern.

[Copyright, 1907, by E. C. Parcells.] This is going to be the greatest year for suckers ever known in the history of the United States. They are going to bite at any and every sort of bait held out to them, and they are going to bite hard.

Wall street is going to shear its lambs in droves, and the west is preparing to unload and skin its tens of thousands with neatness and dispatch. It's in the air. You have but to close your eyes to see a picture of Uncle Reuben mortgaging his cows and selling his hogs to invest in gold mines and buy out oil wells.

In the ten years that we have been editing the Kicker and prancing around the wild and woolly we have learned a thing or two and gathered a thing or two to our bosom. We are not a philanthropist and no more honest than the average, but we shall refuse to join in the scheme to catch suckers.

On the contrary, we are prepared to offer them rare and unexceptional bargains and let them down as easily as possible. If they feel that they must bite at somebody's hook, let them try ours. They can sleep on our goods for thirty nights and if not as represented return them by express.

Our bargain No. 1 consists of half a million dollars' worth of stock in the Ben Hummel gold mine of Nevada. Nobody has ever been able to locate this mine. It isn't even a hole in the ground. Suckers are going to be offered this stock at about 80 cents on the dollar, but we are prepared to do better than that. We bought what we have at 2 cents on the dollar and will sell at 1. Don't be bashful about ordering.

Bargain No. 2 consists of $1,000,000 worth of stock in the Idaho-Montana diamond mine. It was advertised in all the papers five or six years ago that a wagon load of diamonds had already been taken out and that dividends of 5,000 per cent would be paid. Neither the wagon load of sparklers nor the dividends have been heard of since, but if there is a minister of the gospel who signs to increase his salary by investment he can have our whole stock for a ten dollar bill. We lent about that sum on it and shall be glad to get back our own.

Bargain No. 3 is $2,000,000 worth of stock in the Big Hope silver mine. After it had been announced that the mine was one solid mass of silver and could supply the world for a thousand years to come and after some $10,000,000 worth of stock had been sold the mine dropped out of sight. So did its promoters. So did big hopes. This stock will be offered again this year for 70 cents on the dollar. If any struggling widow wants ours for 2 cents a pound, she can have it and pay us in patching our trousers.

Bargain No. 4 alludes to "The Great American Water, Wine and Fruit Supply Company." The idea was to plant 1,000,000 acres of desert land to berries and fruit and vineyards and to supply 1,000,000 inhabitants of the far west with cold spring water from the top of the Rocky mountains. Unfortunately for the rest of us, the man who made $250,000 out of the scheme fell dead while playing poker, and the thing went to pieces. It is to be resurrected again this year as an investment for orphans. Any orphan crying for this stock can get a wood box full of it from us by proving his moral character and paying express charges. Don't deal with any one else until our stock is exhausted.

Bargain No. 5 hit us a solar plexus blow years ago when we had the down and the suckers are asked to bite at it. Our shares are still in the old trunk. The rats may have nibbled at some of it, but what is left will be sold at a cent on the dollar. It is worth that to paper the walls of the married girl's bedroom with. If she is fed headed, she will appreciate the effort to make her happy.

MILLIONS IN THE WESTERN AMERICAN OIL CO. ENORMOUS DIVIDENDS

"So you were well pleased with the train on which you took your wedding trip?" said the bosom friend. "Was it an accommodation train?"

Bargain No. 6 consists of $5,000,000 worth of shares in the Big Hop Scotch gold mine. We can't tell you now where it was located, because the president of the company had forgotten the spot himself. He said it didn't make a cent's worth of difference whether it was located or not, provided the public made 500 per cent dividends. We bought ten shares at 10 cents a share, and he was so pleased with our generosity that he presented us with enough more to make up the $5,000,000. When he had made $100,000 out of the people looking for a good thing, he hopped scotched out of the country. The stock is again being offered to the public. Widows who are now doing washing for a living are told that fifty shares will enable them to buy diamonds by the pailful. Before investing elsewhere call and see our stock. We will sell it to good looking widows at one-half cent on the dollar and make them a present of a calico dress besides.

Bargain No. 7 is a corker. Some seven years ago a bright, smart clerk in a dry goods store in this territory conceived the idea of bringing camels and camels' hair shawls closer together. He therefore organized the Great American Camelo company, capital $50,000,000. The idea was to import half a million camels and have the shawl weaving done at home. In that way every girl working in a factory at $4 a week could have a shawl. The young man wasn't a bit stingy. In return for our lending him $20 in cash and inserting a two column ad, he gave us $7,000,000 worth of stock and assured us on his honor as a dry goods clerk that we could soon buy up all the railroads in America. We believe he made about $1,000 out of the scheme and then went east and opened a hen farm. Some one has resurrected the fake and is to try it again. Before biting, the suckers will please address us. There are enough of these shares in our possession to carpet the floors of 100 hogpens and give an aesthetic twist to 500 hogs. They can be had for the asking. If they don't help the hogs, they won't hurt them. We lose $20 in giving away these bonds, but in return we get the reputation of being a good fellow. In writing us the state the size of your hogpen and age, sex and color of the hogs to be benefited.

The Same Act. An old negro was recently brought before a justice in Mobile. It seemed that Uncle Mose had fallen foul of a bulldog while in the act of entering the henhouse of the dog's owner.

"Look here, Uncle Mose," the justice said informally, "didn't I give you ten days last month for this same thing? Same henhouse you were trying to get into. What have you got to say for yourself?"

Uncle Mose scratched his head.

"Mars Willyum, yo' sent me ter de chain gang fer tryin' ter steal some chickens, didn't ye?"

"Yes, that was de charge."

"An' don't de law say yo' can't be charged twice wid de same 'fense'?"

"In jeopardy for the identical act, yes."

Happy Parents. "Herbert, den," said the fond mother, "Wille Jones says that you told him to throw the rock that broke the window of the church."

"Wille Jones is a deliberate, unqualified, pulverized, desquamated, slow footed, gander shanked, pie faced, bluffed, lop eared, blankety blanketed, wall eyed falsifier!" remarked Herbert dear, looking up from his play for a moment.

With a rapt smile the mother beams upon the caller.
